INDEX

ABILITY GROUPING, as method of providing for individual differences, 341
ACHIEVEMENT, SCHOOL, as related to personality, 607
ADJUSTMENT, CHILD, administrative and supervisory policies facilitating, 330; as facilitated by provisions for individual differences, 340; contributions of nursery school to, 378; coordinating council as a factor in, 575; defined, 234; influence of teacher-parent relationships on, 311; marks and examinations as factors in, 355; out-of-school factors affecting, 293; remedial teaching as a factor in, 521; service of specialists in, 553; teacher personality as a factor in, 386. See also Maladjustment, Child
ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION, SCHOOL, as affecting the teacher's health, 408; as means of facilitating pupil adjustment, 330; teacher growth thru participation in, 410
ALMACK, JOHN C., 368, 373
ANDERSON, HAROLD H., 244
ATTITUDES, changes in, during childhood, 262; procedures for developing, 348
ATYPICAL CHILDREN, number of, in the United States, 266; providing for, in school, 330, 342, 512. See also Handicapped children, and Maladjustment, Child

BAKER, HARRY J., 494
BASSETT, CLARA, 581
BEHAVIOR, defined, 244; discovering and evaluating causes of behavior problems, 460; in relation to growth, 247; in relation to personality, 244; integrative, 251; observing and recording, 462; problem types of, 437; relationships between different factors in, 497; relative seriousness of behavior problems, 591. See also Diagnosis and Maladjustment, Child
BERMAN, SAMUEL, 227
BIBLIOGRAPHY, See References, Selected
BUCKLEY, LORENZO S., 575
BURSCH, JAMES F., 320
BURLING, TEMPLE, 554

CALCIUM DEFICIENCY, effect of, on personality, 541
CARRINGTON, EVELYN M., 386
CASE STUDIES, illustrations of, 317, 333, 348, 425, 486, 523, 577; information needed in making, 461, 485; of student teachers, 425; the teacher's role in making, 486
CHARACTER-BUILDING AGENCIES, effective use of, in developing personality, 326
CHARACTER EDUCATION. See Mental hygiene
CHILD GUIDANCE, conference for handling problem cases in school, 567; cooperation of community agencies in a program of, 324; old and new ideas concerning, 255; service of specialists in, 553. See also Adjustment, Child; Maladjustment, Child; and Remedial measures
CHILD NATURE, dynamic characteristics of, 238, 244, 254, 259; fundamental drives in, 238; individual differences in, 265, 272; in relation to social development, 259, 272; with reference to desirable school environment, 282
CLEMENT, BESS, 227
CLINICS, BEHAVIOR, methods of making case studies in, 485; reference to directory listing, 585. See also Specialists
COMMUNITY. See Home and community
CONFERENCE, PERSONAL, factors contributing to success of, with pupils, 535; illustrations of, 567; improving pupil attitudes thru, 534; with parents, 364
COORDINATING COUNCIL, described and illustrated, 575
CORNELL, ETHEL L., 561
COUNSELOR. See School counselor
CURRICULUM, effect of, in preventing maladjustment, 340
CUTRIGHT, PRUDENCE, 479

DELINQUENCY, research studies on factors contributing to, 604
DEPARTMENT OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PRINCIPALS, committees, (inside front cover); list of members, 622; officers of, (inside front cover); yearbooks listed, (inside back cover)
DIAGNOSIS, by the adjustment teacher, 528; of behavior problems, 460; of children's needs, 332. See also Behavior; Maladjustment, Child; Questionnaires; Rating scales; Records and reports, School; and Tests
DOMINATION, as mode of response, 248
DRISCOLL, GERTRUDE PORTER, 294
DRIVES, FUNDAMENTAL IN HUMAN NATURE, acquired thru experience, 241; basic appetites and aversions, 238; listed, 239; the school as a means of satisfying, 286; to explore, 241; toward familiar ways of acting, 240; toward success, 239

EDITORIAL COMMENT, adapting the school to children's needs, 329; applying specific remedial measures, 501; discovering and evaluating causes of behavior problems, 460; nature and needs of the child, 237; out-of-school factors affecting child adjustment, 293; service of specialists in child care and adjustment, 553; the teacher's influence on pupil personality, 385; types and symptoms of pupil maladjustment, 437
EDITORIAL COMMITTEE FOR 1936 YEARBOOK, members of, 227; preface by, 227
EDUCATION AS MEANS OF ADJUSTMENT. See such headings as School; School marks; Examinations, School; etc.
EMOTIONS, as affected by school environment, 286; basic needs, 259; development of, during childhood, 262; differences between superior and inferior teachers in, 395; influence of personal and social status on, 595; in infancy and the nursery-school age, 260; levels of development, 259; maladjustments of prospective teachers, 423; stability of, among children and teachers, 610; stability of, among prospective teachers, 612
ENDOCRINE GLANDS. See Glands, Endocrine
ENVIRONMENT, effect of, on personality, 245; influence of school, on intellectual development, 283
EVERETT, EDITH M., 485
EXAMINATIONS, SCHOOL, as factor in personality adjustment, 355. See also School marks

FAMILY, influence of, upon child personality, 294, 303, 320. See also Home and community
FENTON, NORMAN, 567
FOSTER, RICHARD R., 227
FREDERIKSEN, ELSIE M., 445

GESELL, ARNOLD, 254
GIFTED CHILDREN, caring for, in school, 341; development of personality in, 272; occupational adjustment of, 276; tendency of, to become isolated, 278
GILLETT, NORMA, 534
GLANDS, ENDOCRINE, calcium deficiency in relation to, 541; correction of behavior difficulties thru treatment of, 541; effect of lowered thyroid activity on personality, 543; effect of pituitary malfunctioning on personality, 544
GLOSSARY, 667
GRAVES, ALBERT D., 567
GROWTH, as a factor in child personality, 254; defined, 247; effect of, on child's experiences, 295
GRUENBERG, SIDONIE MATSNER, 311
GUIDANCE, CHILD. See Child guidance

HANDICAPPED CHILDREN, reclassification of, in school, 512; special provisions for, 342; symptoms of maladjustment exhibited by, 453. See also Atypical children
HANNA, EDITH B., 521
HEALTH. See Mental hygiene, and Physical health
HOLLINGWORTH, LETA S., 272
HOME AND COMMUNITY, as related to pupil maladjustment, 320; cooperation of community agencies in a program of child guidance, 324; effect of, on child personality, 294, 303; experiment in reporting pupil progress to parents, 364; gathering facts concerning, 464, 490; improving relationships between home and school, 311, 336; methods of utilizing resources of, 581; modifying unfavorable influences in, 546; types of helpful community agencies, 584

IDE, GLADYS, 512
INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES, ability grouping as method of providing for, 341; appreciation of, by teacher, 392; attitude of school toward, 288; preventing maladjustment by providing for, 340; significance of, in relation to personality development, 245, 265; three ways of responding to, 248; types of, 265
INSKEEP, ANNIE DOLMAN, 453
INTEGRATIVE BEHAVIOR, nature of, 251
INTELLIGENCE, low, as related to pupil maladjustment, 320, 515; measuring the child's, 463; needed by teacher, 391; of unsocial child, 503; optimum, for satisfactory adjustment, 280; physique in relation to, 274; supernormal, as related to development of personality, 272
INTRODUCTION, to yearbook, 233

JACOBS, R. C. T., 227

KANNER, LEO, 438, 461
KNIGHT, F. B., 282
KOCH, HELEN L., 428, 502

LANGDON, GRACE, 378
LARUE, DANIEL WOLFORD, 395
LIVERIGHT, ALICE K., 527
LUCKEY, BERTHA M., 265
LYON, HARLEY W., 228

MCBROOM, MAUDE, 227
MALADJUSTMENT, CHILD, applying specific remedial measures, 501; case-study technic, 461, 485; collecting and organizing information relating to, 468; diagnosis of, by the adjustment teacher, 528; endocrine malfunctioning as related to, 541; essential steps in studying, 461; evaluating facts relating to, 494; evidences of, in a city school system, 445; factors contributing to delinquency, 604; home and community conditions related to, 320; improving pupil attitudes thru the personal conference, 534; marital status of parents in relation to, 322; modifying unfavorable influences in home and community, 546; personality defects and poor school habits, 518; preventing, by providing for individual differences, 340; readjusting, 502; reclassifying pupils who are misplaced in school, 512; research studies dealing with, 588; research studies on special feeding for nervous children, 600; research studies on frequency of, 588; service of specialists in dealing with, 554; symptoms in relation to physical causes of, 453; teaching as a factor in readjustment, 521; treatment of shut-in personalities, 604; types and symptoms of, 437. See also Adjustment, Child; Diagnosis; Occupational adjustment; Personality; and similar headings
MARKS, SCHOOL. See School marks
MARSHALL, JESSICA, 348
MATEER, FLORENCE, 541
MEEK, LOIS HAYDEN, 294
MEMBERSHIP LIST, Department of Elementary School Principals, 622
MENTAL ABILITY. See Intelligence
MENTAL DISEASE, extent of, among children, 444; number of patients in hospitals for, 233
MENTAL HYGIENE, compared with character education, 235; National Committee for, 417, 423, 585; nature and significance of, in the classroom, 417. See also Adjustment, Child; Emotions; Maladjustment, Child; and Teachers
MENTAL HYGIENISTS, responsibilities of, in the school, 554
MORT, PAUL R., 330
MOTION PICTURES, research relating to influence of, on behavior, 606
MYERS, GARRY CLEVELAND, 303

NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, Department of Elementary School Principals, (inside front cover), 622; Research Division, 227, 588
NORMAL CHILDREN, variations among, 266
NURSE, SCHOOL, duties of, in relation to personality adjustment, 555
NURSERY SCHOOL, contribution of, to personality adjustment, 378; extent of nursery-school movement, 378
NURSERY-SCHOOL CHILDREN. See Preschool children

OCCUPATIONAL ADJUSTMENT, of gifted children, 276
OFFICIAL INFORMATION, introductory statement, 615; list of members, 622; local principals organizations, 616; sectional principals associations, 619; state principals associations, 620
ONLY CHILDREN, research studies relating to personality development of, 598
OPPORTUNITY SCHOOL, for handicapped children, 342
O'REILLY, E. P., 340

PARENTS, influence of nursery school on, 382; relationships with teachers, 311. See also Family, and Home and community
PERKINS, HUGH V., 410
PERSONALITY, as a maturation process, 257; as related to individual differences, 265; contributions of nursery school to, 378; defined, 234, 273; development of, in highly intelligent children, 272; dynamic nature of, 244; effect of glandular disturbances on, 541; effect of individual differences on, 269; effect of teacher load upon development of, in pupils, 368; factors related to growth and adjustment of, 593; fundamental drives, 238; influence of early experiences on, 294; influence of school achievement and related factors on, 607; in-service training of teachers for guidance of, 428; marks and examinations as factors in, 355; out-of-school factors affecting, 293; planning the schoolhouse with reference to development of, 373; preservice preparation of teachers for work in adjustment of, 417; principles relative to school as environment for development of, 290; remedial measures applying to, 501; research studies on effect of physical factors on, 599; research studies on influence of movies on, 606; research studies on treatment of shut-in, 604; types and symptoms of pupil maladjustment, 437. See also Maladjustment, Child; Adjustment, Child; Emotions; and similar headings

PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT, children with handicaps of, 512; experiences contributing to, 297; research studies relating to effect of, on personality, 599. See also Handicapped children, and Physical health

PHYSICAL HEALTH, effect of teacher's load on, 368; importance of, in personality development, 303; influence of school heating and ventilation on, 376; of teachers, 387, 402; reclassifying pupils who lack, 512; school-building illumination as related to, 375

PHYSICIAN, SCHOOL, duties of, in relation to personality adjustment, 555

PINKSTON, EVA G., 227

PITUITARY GLAND, effect of malfunctioning on personality, 544. See also Glands, Endocrine

PREFACE, to yearbook, 227

PRESCHOOL CHILDREN, evidences of mental growth in, 256; habit problems of, 597; home experiences and play attitudes of, 597; infancy and the nursery-school age, 260; research studies on personality growth of, 596. See also Drives, Fundamental in human nature

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE, 228

PROMOTIONS, trends in school policies governing, 333

PSYCHIATRIST, SCHOOL, duties of, in relation to personality adjustment, 557

PSYCHOLOGIST, SCHOOL, case-load capacity of, 564; duties of, in relation to personality adjustment, 556, 561; qualifications of, 561; special technics of, 563

PUPIL ADJUSTMENT. See Adjustment, Child; and Maladjustment, Child

QUESTIONNAIRES, as means of collecting personal data, 475

RATING SCALES, as means of studying personality, 476; of behavior factors, illustration of, 494

RECORDS AND INFORMATION. See Official information

RECORDS AND REPORTS, SCHOOL, an experiment in reporting children's progress to parents, 364; a particular system of, described, 469; collecting and organizing information concerning the child, 468; cumulative record card for the individual pupil, 479; developing adequate system of, 336, 346; discovering and evaluating causes of behavior problems by means of, 460; information needed in a case study, 485; keeping records over period of time, of child's behavior, 466

REFERENCES, SELECTED, adapting the school to children's needs, 384; applying specific remedial measures, 552; discovering and evaluating causes of behavior problems, 500; nature and needs of the child, 292; out-of-school factors affecting child adjustment, 328; service of specialists in child care and adjustment, 553; teacher's influence on pupil personality, 436; types and symptoms of pupil maladjustment, 459

REMEDIAL MEASURES, applied by adjustment teacher, 527; applying specific, 501; glandular therapy, 541; illustrative case reports, 523; modifying unfavorable influences in home and community, 546; personal conferences, 535; readjusting the unsocial child, 502; reclassifying pupils in school, 512

REPORTS, SCHOOL. See Records and reports, School

RESEARCH DIVISION. See National Education Association

RESEARCH STUDIES, SUMMARY OF, factors related to personality growth and adjustment, 593; frequency of child maladjustments and readjustments, 588; general conclusions, 612; mental health of teachers, 610; relative seriousness of behavior problems, 591; work and achievement, 607

RESISTANCE, as mode of response, 250

RETAN, GEORGE A., 423

RIVLIN, HARRY N., 417

ROGERS, JAMES FREDERICK, 402

ROSSMAN, MABEL, 364

SCHOOL, ability grouping in, 341; adapting, to children's needs, 329; as a means of satisfying basic urges, 286; attitude of, toward individual differences, 288; children with special problems relating to, 517; conditions affecting teacher health, 402; curriculum and instruction, 340; difficulties involved in providing optimum conditions in, 289; extending scope of opportunities in, 330; improving relationships of, with the home, 336; influence of achievement and related factors on personality, 607; influence of remedial teaching on readjustment, 521; in relation to development of child's intellect, 283; instructional program described, 340; kind of environment needed, 282; living conditions associated with maladjustment in, 320; low mentality as related to maladjustment in, 320; marks and examinations as related to pupil adjustment in, 355; nursery, contributions to personality adjustment, 378; outside agencies assisting in personality adjustment, 581; placement of child in, 504, 512; planning the schoolhouse, 373; principles relative to, as environment for personality development, 290; procedures for developing pupil attitudes in, 348; program of work, 285; promotion policies, 333; reclassifying misplaced children in, 512; recognition of out-of-school influences by, 286; records and reports, 336, 364, 468, 479; research studies on influence of, on bright and dull children, 594; research studies on value of mental hygiene in, 595; service of specialists in, 553; special provisions for handicapped children in, 342; special service departments in, 344

SCHOOL COUNSELOR, duties of, in relation to personality adjustment, 557

SCHOOLHOUSE, effect of, on personality, 373
SCHOOL MARKS, as factor in personality adjustment, 355; developing adequate system of, 346. See also Examinations, School
SMITH, F. B., 324
SNYDER, LOUISE MAY, 546
SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT, during childhood, 262; infancy and the nursery-school age, 260; levels of, 259; objectives of, 507; technics for developing companionships, 509. See also Unsocial child
SPECIALISTS, conference plan for handling problem cases in school, 567; contributions of, in the school, 554, 561; services of, in child care and adjustment, 553; utilizing, outside the school, 575, 581
SPECIAL SERVICE DEPARTMENTS, health, 345; student personnel, 344
SUBMISSION, as mode of response, 249; research studies on modifying trait of, 603
SUPERNORMAL CHILDREN, mentally, 272; physically, 515
SYMONDS, PERCIVAL M., 238, 355

TEACHERS, adjustment, in a particular city school system, 527; comparison of, with other adults in mental hospitals, 611; effect of, on the child's intellect, 283; emotional differences between superior and inferior, 395; emotional health of prospective, 423, 612; how specialists may aid, 554; importance of understanding child nature, 287; influence of teacher-parent relationships on child adjustments, 311; in-service training of, for personality guidance, 428; load, as a factor in physical and mental hygiene, 368; maintaining physical welfare of, 387, 402; mental health of, 395, 408, 418, 423, 434, 610; mode of handling personality problems, 309; part taken by, in making case studies, 486; participation of, in developing a record system, 480; participation of, in school control, 339, 410; personal influence of, as factor in readjustment, 521; personality of, as related to child adjustment, 386; preservice preparation of, in personality adjustment, 417; selecting superior, 337; sick leave for, 406; training of, for personality guidance, 417, 428; use of personal conference by, 534; work of visiting, 557
TEMPERAMENT. See Emotions, and Personality
TESTS, in the field of personality, 273, 477
THYROID GLAND, effect of malfunctioning of, on personality, 543

UNSOCIAL CHILD, readjusting, 502. See also Maladjustment, Child

VAN ALSTYNE, DOROTHY, 468

YEARBOOKS, Department of Elementary School Principals, (inside back cover)

ZACHRY, CAROLINE B., 259